A Message from our President

Blake Roulette

Dear Members,

Just a short hello and reminder of our upcoming meeting. This is our annual meeting and as such we will have our elections of the new Officers for 2010-2011.

Make your plans to attend now.

Hope everyone has recovered from our show and had good results from your showing. Thank you to all of you who made the show a success.

Until Tuesday,

Blake

Thank You Notes from Judges-Kris Harner*From: Mike Piefer

Hi Kris,

Just a short note to let you know how thankful I was to be asked to judge your show this past weekend. I couldn't have been on a nicer panel or treated so very special. I usually say my thank you's between one of my classes on the last day, which I did do, but I am not sure who is there from the club that had the time to listen with all that they all have to take care of. So I just thought I would follow up with an email.

Again, thanks very much,
Mike

From: Bob Frost

Hi Kris,

Just a short note to say what a pleasure it was to have judged your show this past weekend. Good dogs, good venue and good people - what more can a judge ask for.

Again, thanks.

Bob Frost

The Retired Show Dog-Submitted by Kari Hill*

He sits to the side, out of the way
While others beg head rubs, or force you to play.
His dark liquid eyes watch your every move
Hoping and waiting, his love to prove.

He was shown many times, a promising pup
And he just got better as he grew up.
A picture of health, robust and strong.
His gait and topline, never went wrong.

But his prime has passed, and he seems to know,
That he'll never again be put in a show.
He eats, sleeps, not much more than that,
And maybe he's getting a little too fat.

He loves to be brushed, when you have the time,
He waits his turn at the end of the line.
You think of him, sure, but not nearly as much
As those promising pups.
So he sits and he waits, till you have time,
To make the same fuss as you did in his prime.
A scrap of affection, or playful shove,
To him it means everything, to him it means LOVE !!

Nutty Chocolate Caramel Bars

Sharon Spiegel

Here is the recipe for the chocolate caramel bars served at the July meeting:

Makes 2 1/2 dozen bars

- 2 1/3 cups all-purpose flour, divided
- 2 cups old fashioned oats
- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup (2 sticks) butter or margarine, melted
- 2 cups (12-ounce package), semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 1 1/2 cups chopped walnuts
- 1 cup (12.25-ounce jar) caramel ice cream topping

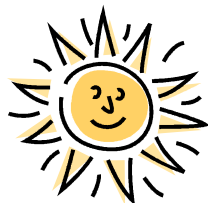

Combine 2 cups flour, oats, brown sugar, baking soda and salt in large bowl. Add butter; stir until all ingredients are moistened. Reserve 1 cup crumb mixture; press remaining mixture into bottom of ungreased 13" x 9" baking pan.

Bake at 350° F for 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from oven; sprinkle with morsels and walnuts. Combine caramel topping and remaining 1/3 cup flour in small bowl; drizzle over base. Sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture.

Bake at 350° F. for 20 to 25 minutes more or until lightly browned. Cool in pan.

Members' Brags

Robert and Catherine LeBlond

(Rhodesian Ridgebacks)

FC Highveld's Reign Beau Warrior, SC, earned her Rally Novice (RN) title on Sunday August 1.

Bobbie Fairbanks

(All Rough Collies )

At our show circuit:

Ch Azalea Hill's All My Love CD (obedience), PT herding) received her RN (rally novice) title in 3 straight shows.

Ch Azalea Hill's Barksdale Legacy, received his final 2 legs on his Rally Advanced title.

Azalea Hill Encore received his final 2 legs on his Rally Novice title.

Lee Evans

Well, it was the end of June in Richmond, VA, and my little Chihuahua Bitch, Daisy, won a 4 point major on Sat, going best of Winners and Winners Bitch, and a 3 point major on Sun with Winners Bitch. She is now my very first show dog and my very first Champion title. I did all her handling, so I feel really good about that, as she AND I just started showing at the Summer 2009 Greenville shows.

Oh, yeah, and I'm now the secretary of the Central Carolina Chihuahua Club

Lynn Cone

(Raelyn Wheatens)

Spartanburg Kennel Club, Sunday, August 1st

Chairman's Report August 2010

-- This September, Celebrate Responsible Dog Ownership With Us Without Leaving Your Computer! --

For the past eight years, hundreds of AKC clubs and dog organizations nationwide have been celebrating AKC Responsible Dog Ownership Days by educating the public about the importance of responsible ownership. We congratulate those clubs and dog-loving groups on their outreach efforts and the profound impact it has had on thousands. This year, we are expanding that reach into interactive fun for you, your dog and your club by letting us know how you put responsible dog ownership into action!

This September, we invite dog lovers across America to share their "Acts of Responsible Dog Ownership" with us online as part of the inaugural "Virtual AKC RDO Days". You or your club's "act" can be something as simple as taking your dog for his regular walk or as elaborate as getting him health tested or microchipped. Do something for your own dogs or for dogs in your community as a whole, such as a donation to the local dog park. Pick up an extra poop along your walk, help someone find a responsible breeder, give your dog a good grooming or schedule his annual vet checkup.

Then, let us know what you or your club did. We want to amass at least 5,000 "Acts" in honor of AKC's 5,000 clubs nationwide. There are several ways you or your club can let us know what you have done:

During September AKC will post the daily "Act of Responsible Dog Ownership" on Facebook where you can "Like" it or post your own on AKC's wall. You can always "tweet" us at Twitter @akcdoglovers or send it to us via e-mail at communications@akc.org. If you're feeling really creative, take a photo or video of your "Act of Responsible Dog Ownership" and share it with us on AKC's YouTube channel or Flickr pages.

In conjunction with your act of responsible ownership, we encourage everyone to sign the AKC Responsible Dog Owner Pet Promise, a petition that brings the tenets of responsible dog ownership to life. You can also leave your "act" of responsible ownership in the comment section here. The "Pet Promise" is an oath that reminds both novice and veteran dog owners that raising a healthy dog is about more than just playtime and pampering. Find it at www.akc.org/rdod.

Don't forget that AKC's flagship event caps off the month on September 25th in Raleigh, North Carolina. If you're a club still looking to host a "live" event, there is still time to register your event on our website and receive a free kit of materials. You can also find an event to attend in your area.

We hope that you will join us in celebrating AKC RDO Days this September in person as well as virtually. As always, thank you to our returning sponsors Invisible Fence® Brand and ADT Security Services as well as new sponsors Hill's® Science Diet® Small & Toy Breed Dog Food and Motel 6 for making AKC Responsible Dog Ownership Days possible. But most of all – we thank all AKC participants for their generous support of this initiative and for their dedication to promoting responsible dog ownership.

Sincerely,

Ron Menaker
Chairman
